

The Life of Christ Living In Me!

Practical Studies in The Gospel According to Luke

December 31, 2014

Change Is Hard and Necessary (Luke 13:1-9).

1. Some who were present told Jesus about how Pilate _____ the blood of Galileans with their _____.
2. Research: Find all you can about Pilate's action in this passage. _____

3. Were these Galileans worse sinners? _____
4. Jesus says that unless you _____ you will all likewise _____.
5. The tower of Siloam fell on _____ people and killed them.
6. Were those who died in the fall of the tower worse sinners? _____
7. Research: Find all the information you can about the fall of the tower of Siloam. _____

8. Jesus says that unless you _____ you will all likewise _____.
9. Why did the owner of the vineyard want cut down the fig tree? _____

10. An opportunity is given for the fig tree to change and bear _____.
11. What are the two possibilities for the fig tree that received the second chance? _____

Jesus Heals a Woman on the Sabbath (Luke 13:10-17).

1. Where was Jesus on this Sabbath and what was He doing? _____
2. Describe the woman Jesus encountered. _____
3. Jesus said to her, "Woman, you are _____ from your _____."
4. She was made _____ and _____ God.
5. The ruler of the synagogue is upset and suggests there were _____ other days Jesus could heal on, but not on the _____.
6. Jesus points out their hypocrisy because they would loose an _____ or _____ and lead it to water on the Sabbath but not allow a woman to be healed.
7. They had more compassion for a healthy animal than for a sick woman.
8. The adversaries were put to _____.
9. The multitude _____ for all the glorious things that were done by Him.

Two Short Kingdom Parables (Luke 13:18-21).

1. The parable of the _____ seed. (verses 18-19)
 - a. Jesus uses this parable to teach about the _____ of God.
 - b. While a mustard seed is very small it will grow into a _____ tree and even the birds can _____ in the branches.
 - c. Explain the meaning of this parable: _____

2. The parable of the hidden _____. (verses 20-21)
 - a. Jesus uses this parable to teach about the _____ of God.
 - b. When the leaven was hid in the meal it was all _____.
 - c. Explain the meaning of this parable: _____

The Life of Christ Living In Me

1. We must be ready to change to be all God wants us to be.
2. We need to be people of compassion.
3. When we learn of the actions and characteristics of Jesus we should give glory to God.
4. The Kingdom of God was/is intended to grow.