

The Life of Christ Living In Me!

Practical Studies in The Gospel According to Luke

January 28, 2015

A Parable About An Unjust Steward (Luke 16:1-13).

1. What was the accusation against the steward? _____

2. The steward was called upon to give an _____. If a steward was dishonest he could no longer be a steward.

3. The steward realized that he could not _____ and was ashamed to _____.

4. The steward makes a plan to for the time when he is no longer a steward. He thought some of the debtors might _____ him into their house.

5. The one who owed 100 measures of oil was told to _____.

6. The one who owed 100 measures of wheat was told to _____.

7. Notice that in each case he had to ask, "How much do you _____ my master?"

8. The master _____ the unjust _____. Why? _____

9. THINK! What are some characteristics of mammon? _____

10. He who is faithful or unjust in the least will show those same characteristics in _____.

11. THINK! What are the true riches? _____

12. It is impossible to serve _____ masters. You will hate one and _____ the other. You will be _____ to one and despise the other.

13. You cannot serve _____ and _____.

14. THINK! How can you apply these principles? _____

Pharisees Warned Again (Luke 16:14-17).

1. The Pharisees were lovers or _____.

2. What did they do when they heard the teaching of Jesus? _____

3. The Pharisees were those who _____ themselves.

4. Notice the contrasts:
 - a. They justified themselves before men but, _____.
 - b. What is highly esteemed among men is _____.
5. Everyone is pressing into the _____ of _____.
6. It is easier for heaven and earth to _____ than for one tittle of the _____ to fail.
7. Define “tittle” _____

Divorce Dangers (Luke 16:18).

1. “Whoever _____ his wife and marries another commits _____; and whoever marries her who is _____ from her husband commits _____. ”
2. List some other passages that may give further teaching on this topic:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
 - e. _____

The Life of Christ Living In Me

1. We must be careful to be good stewards in all things.
2. Self-justification does not equal the justification of God.
3. Marriage is a very serious commitment.