

The Life of Christ Living In Me!

Practical Studies in The Gospel According to Luke

February 11, 2015

Offending (Luke 17:1-4).

1. It is impossible that no _____ should come.
2. Woe to him through whom they do _____.
3. How serious is it to offend “one of these little ones”? _____

4. THINK! Who are these “little ones”? _____
5. THINK! We read the word “offense” and “offend” in this section. What do these words mean? _____
6. If your brother sins against you _____ him. If he repents, _____ him.
7. How often should you forgive a penitent brother? _____

Unprofitable Servants (Luke 17:5-10).

1. What request do the apostles make? _____
2. Faith as a _____ seed can do great things.
3. Even with that little seed of faith, it could tell the _____ tree to be pulled up by the _____ and be planted in the _____ and it would obey you.
4. Consider the man and his servant:
 - a. Even after working plowing or tending sheep the servant is expected to prepare _____ for the _____.
 - b. The servant is not treated as a guest.
 - c. After the master has eaten then the servant can _____ and _____.
 - d. Is a servant thanked for doing what is expected? _____
 - e. So if we are perfectly obedient, doing everything we are supposed to do, we have just done our _____, and are _____ servants.
 - f. THINK! What is the application of this? _____

Ten Lepers (Luke 17:11-19).

1. Jesus was passing through the midst of _____ and _____ on His way to _____.
 2. Jesus met _____ men who were lepers. They stood _____ off.
 3. They called out to Jesus and said, "Jesus, _____, have _____ on us."
 4. What words of instruction does Jesus give them? _____

 5. As they went, they were _____.
 6. What did the one healed leper do?
 - a. He _____.
 - b. With a loud _____ he _____ God.
 - c. He _____ down at Jesus' _____.
 - d. He gave Jesus _____.
 - e. By the way, the one leper was a Samaritan.
 7. Jesus asks a compelling question after observing that ten were cleansed. He asked, "But where are the _____?"
 8. Jesus points out that none gave thanks except this _____.
 9. Jesus reminds the man, "Your _____ has made you _____."
 10. THINK! What lesson can we learn? _____
-

The Life of Christ Living In Me

1. We must be careful that our influence does not cause a little one to sin.
2. We must be longsuffering in forgiving.
3. A little seed of faith can GROW!
4. Always give thanks for God's blessings.
5. Ingratitude is ugly.