

The Life of Christ Living In Me!

Practical Studies in The Gospel According to Luke

April 22, 2015

A Widow Gives (Luke 21:1-4).

1. What two offerings did Jesus observe?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
2. THINK! Who contributed the most? _____
3. Notice the differences between the two offerings:
 - a. The rich gave out of their _____.
 - b. The widow gave out of her _____.
 - c. She gave all the _____ that she had.
4. What application can we make from this teaching of Jesus? _____

The Stones of the Temple (Luke 21:5-9).

1. When some people spoke of the temple, what did they notice? _____

2. Jesus tells about the temple:
 - a. He calls attention to these _____ which they saw.
 - b. There were _____ which would come.
 - c. Not one _____ would be left on _____.
 - d. Every stone would be _____ down.
3. The hearers have two questions:
 - a. _____ will these things be.
 - b. What _____ will there be about _____ these things take place.
4. Jesus warns against those who would come in His _____.
5. "Do not go _____ them."
6. What would come to pass before these things would take place? _____

Patience in Uncertainty (Luke 21:10-19).

1. Notice the things Jesus foretells:
2. _____ will rise against _____.
3. _____ against _____.
4. _____ in various places.
5. Famines and _____.
6. Fearful _____ and great signs from _____.
7. THINK! Who would be persecuted? _____.
8. The persecution would provide an occasion for _____.
9. How could they prepare for the coming persecution? _____
10. Where would their mouth and wisdom come from? _____
11. How good would their answers be? _____
12. They would also have rejection by those whom they knew:
 - a. Betrayed by _____ and brothers, relatives and _____, they would be _____ by all.
 - b. These previously close people, would put them to _____.
13. When it comes to being lost, those faithful to the Lord would not even have a _____ lost.
14. THINK! Explain the meaning of Luke 21:19: _____

The Life of Christ Living In Me

1. True giving is sacrificial and from the heart.
2. Our hope cannot rest in this world.
3. In the most difficult times, we must put our trust in the Lord.