

The Life of Christ Living In Me!

Practical Studies in The Gospel According to Luke

April 29, 2015

Judgment on Jerusalem (Luke 21:20-28).

1. Where would you find parallel passages to this section? _____
2. Notice that these things apply to God's judgment of Jerusalem but may have characteristics of all judgments of God, including final judgment.
3. Jerusalem would be surrounded by _____.
4. What is said to be near when this happens? _____
5. Travel directions:
 - a. Those in Judea should flee to _____.
 - b. Those in the midst should _____.
 - c. Those in the country should not _____.
6. These days ...
 - a. ... are days of _____.
 - b. ... were written about and are being _____.
7. What women will find this a particularly difficult time?
 - a. Those who are _____.
 - b. Those who are _____ babies.
8. List some of the devastation:
 - a. Fall by the _____ of the _____.
 - b. Led away _____.
 - c. _____ by the Gentiles.
9. There would be signs in the _____, _____, _____, on the _____ distress of nations, the _____ an the waves roaring.
10. What would the fear and expectation of men be? _____
11. The powers of heaven would be _____.
12. Who would they see coming in power and glory? _____
13. When they saw all these things begin to happen:
 - a. Look _____.
 - b. Lift their _____.
 - c. Your _____ draws near.

Fig Tree Lesson (Luke 21:29-33).

1. This teaching was a _____.
2. Jesus told them to look at the _____ tree and _____ trees.
3. When they would see the tree budding, what could they know? _____
4. The application is, when they saw all these signs that Jesus had taught about, they would know the _____ of God is near.
5. When would these things take place? _____
6. Jesus' words would not _____ away.

Stay Alert (Luke 21:34-38).

1. During such serious times they received a special warning about:
 - a. _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. _____ of this life.
2. Notice that the serious attitude was so that the day would not come on them _____.
3. It is described as a _____ on all those who dwell on the face of the earth.
4. What were they to watch and pray for? _____

5. Jesus' regular schedule was that he taught in the temple in the _____, but spent nights on the _____ called _____.
6. We read how the people came to hear Him _____ in the morning.

The Life of Christ Living In Me

1. During times of trial we need to prepare and be serious.
2. Warnings from the Lord are to be heeded.
3. Jesus is still teaching.