

Lesson Eight

The Rule of a King (Ecclesiastes 8:1-9)

1. What affect does the application of wisdom have on your life? _____

2. What are some reasons for obeying “the king”? _____

3. When is there no power? _____
4. Who has a better life, one who rules, or one who obeys the ruler? _____

Do Well (Ecclesiastes 8:10-13)

5. How might you come, and go, from a place of holiness? _____

6. What will ruin a sentence against evil? _____
7. Do you see a thought that might warn against a calloused conscience? What verse?

8. When the wicked only views life under the sun, he might think he is without punishment. What is the problem with this thinking? _____

Things That You Can't Know (Ecclesiastes 8:14-17)

9. What is the troubling thought in verse 14? _____
10. Find another verse in the Bible that says “eat, drink, and be merry”. _____
Compare the teaching in the two verses. _____
11. What is it than man cannot find out? _____

