

Studies in the Psalms

Psalm 109

A Psalm of David.

Themes:

- Help Me, O Lord My God
- Vengeance Brought Upon Adversaries
- Prayer for Help in Judgment

An Example of an Imprecatory Psalm.

- David Needs Help from God. (1-5)

- What words does David use to describe those who trouble him? _____

- What had been done to David? _____

- Requests for Enemies. (6-20)

- In what ways does David ask for his enemies to be troubled? _____

- Who is David asking to do these things? _____
- What does David ask the Lord to do with the curses of the wicked? _____

- The Need for Deliverance. (21-31)

- While David calls upon God for Justice against his enemies, what does he ask for himself? _____
- The last 2 verses contain words of _____.

What lessons can we learn today from the words of this psalm? _____

